NARRATIVE:

Damon Gardner has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include multiple robberies, grand theft of person, possession of contraband in jail and possession of controlled substances for sale. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 6 year term for grand theft of person. Gardner was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 20, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Gardner qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for grand theft of person is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
